

National DO NOT CALL legislation must allow more stringent controls by the individual states or match the most stringent controls in effect at the state level.